Services Provided

PSC provides internet resources to connect individuals with participating physicians, licensed therapists and other licensed health care practitioners (the "Providers") in real time, via live streaming video, telephone and/or secure e-mail for the diagnosis and treatment of patients over the Internet, as well as providing other types of administrative services and information ("Services").

PSC has entered into an agreement with a physician network (the "Provider") for the provision of Services. Accordingly, Your PHI will be available to Provider. The PSC Privacy Policy is available at this link: www.psc.healthcare/privacy. All of the participating Providers have independently contracted to be in the network operated by the Provider. PSC does not provide any physicians' or other Providers' services itself.

Use of This Site and the Services – NOT FOR EMERGENCIES

PSC's Site and Services are NOT for use for medical Emergencies or urgent situations. You should not disregard or delay to seek medical advice based on anything that appears on PSC's Site. IF YOU THINK YOU HAVE AN EMERGENCY, CALL 911, IMMEDIATELY!

Your interaction with the Providers through the Service is not intended to replace your relationship with your existing primary care physician. PSC is not an insurance product, nor a prescription fulfillment warehouse. PSC, physicians and Provider(s) reserve the right to deny care for actual or potential misuse of these Services. The Services do not include the provision of medical care by PSC. Rather, the Services enable access to Providers who have agreed to provide patient care to Customers using PSC's Services. PSC provides technology to facilitate the contact between providers for the provision of care; it does not provide medical care. These Terms of Use apply to your use of the Site and, to the extent referenced, to your registration for, subscription to, and use of the Services.

Prescription Policy

PSC operates subject to state regulations and prescriptions may not be available in your state. PSC is not a drug fulfillment warehouse. In the event that a Provider does prescribe a medication, he/she will limit the supply based on state regulations and will only prescribe a medication, as determined appropriate in his/her sole discretion and professional judgment. PSC does not guarantee that a prescription will be written. Note: PSC Providers do not prescribe DEA controlled substances or scheduled medications, non-therapeutic drugs and certain other drugs which may be harmful because of their potential for abuse.

You agree that any prescriptions that you acquire from a Provider shall be solely for your personal use. You agree to fully and carefully read all provided product information and labels and to contact a physician or pharmacist if you have any questions regarding the prescription.
